

MORGAN COUNTY MEN REGISTERING BY THOUSANDS

Much Larger Total Now Assured Than Had Been Anticipated

VERY FEW CLAIMING EXEMPTION

Negroes Stand In Line And Await Their Turn, None Seeking To Evade

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, indications were that Albany and Decatur would register 1,500 men subject to military service and between the ages of 21 and 31 years. The total for the county will exceed 3,000.

Registration was proceeding with unusual dispatch at the Decatur city hall, 246 having registered there at 2 o'clock. Other figures available were: West Albany, 130; South Albany, 125; Albany city hall, 123; court house, Decatur, 56; East Albany, 56.

The registrars were handling about ten men to the hour, and in the majority of the city booths two or more men were at work.

Indications are that the registration in Morgan county will be much heavier than was expected. Reports coming in from different parts of the county say the registrars are having to engage extra help in order to take care of the waiting crowds. Several hurry-up calls have come into the sheriff's office for more registration cards. It is now believed that the county will register between four and five thousand.

Not Conscripts Later But Volunteers Now, Says General Neville

(International News Service.)
New York, June 5.—Pleading for American volunteers to be sent immediately to France, Gen. Neville, commanding the French forces along the Aisne river in France, declared that this is preferable from the French viewpoint to a great army raised by conscription, according to an interview with an American received here today.

PRESIDENT SENDS MESSAGE TO VETS

TELLS SOUTHERN SOLDIERS NATION THAT CHALLENGES AMERICA AWAKENS HER STRENGTH.

(International News Service.)
Washington, June 5.—"This is a day of a renewal of that spirit that has made America great among the world of nations. The solid lines of young men going to the places of registration throughout the country shall be a signal to the world that all of America's manhood will serve and that he who challenges the integrity of the United States challenges their united strength."

This was President Wilson's message delivered this afternoon to the United Veterans of the Confederacy gathered here for their annual reunion.

SENATOR BANKHEAD APPEARS IN SENATE IN UNIFORM.

Washington, June 5.—A thrill of patriotic feeling ran through the United States senate this afternoon when a gray-clad Confederate veteran with trembling voice and tear-filled eyes rose in their midst before the senate adjourned out of respect for southern soldiers, holding their reunion in the national capital. It was Senator Bankhead of Alabama, who served through the four years of the civil war. He was attired in the full uniform of the Confederate private.

ALBANY OVERALL FACTORY GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

Operations Begun By Second Industry Financed By the Board of Commerce

The Albany Overall Company, the second manufacturing industry financed by the Albany Board of Commerce, has begun operations. Eighteen machines have been installed at the plant on East Grant street, with a capacity of 100 dozen pair of overalls weekly. The plant is under the management of Mr. Edwards, an expert in the

A surprise feature of the registration is the fact that the negroes are lining up and registering in full force. From the time the doors opened this morning, the negroes came pouring in to register. Silently and patiently they sat waiting their turn to go before the register, and many of them when they had sat for more than an hour lined up only to find they had come to the wrong place and would have to register in another ward.

Another feature of the registration is the fact that very few of those registering are claiming exemption. Many young men who have married since April 5, looked the registrar squarely in the eye and told him they did not claim any exemption of service from their country.

Many who could be exempt from the service scorn this exemption and ask that they may send a perfect card to the war department. One of these instances, and a pathetic one it was, was that of John Ballas, of Decatur. Mr. Ballas was born on the Isle of Midland, Greece, twenty-one years ago. When he was fifteen he came to America to live. He has not yet received his naturalization papers and is therefore not an American. When told that he was a citizen of Greece and not of America, John protested hotly.

"America is my country," he said. "When I left Greece she was no longer my home. This is my country. I moved here, live here. This is where I live and I don't claim exemption."

The American Oak Leather and Extract Company declared a holiday today in order that their employees might register. It is expected that other businesses will give a half holiday this afternoon.

British Fight Naval Battle Off West Flanders Coast

CONVICTS MUTINY FIRE BUILDINGS AND FIGHT GUARDS

(International News Service.)
Joliet, Ill., June 5.—Several hundred convicts in the state penitentiary today mutinied and set fire to the repair shop.

In less than half an hour the blaze had spread to four other buildings, the convicts had gotten beyond the control of the guards and a detachment of the state militia near the prison was sent for.

The prisoners, among them murderers, thugs and thieves of the most hardened sort, were disgruntled at an order issued by the acting warden barring all visitors from the prison except relatives of the convicts.

It was believed that the uprising was pre-arranged. While at breakfast there was an uproar, and immediately every convict began throwing plates and cups at the heads of the guards.

Additional guards were sent for, but the convicts were beyond control.

The first detachment of militia to arrive entered the prison yard with drawn bayonets and drove the convicts back.

Many hand to hand fights ensued before the men were driven to their cells. Five men are more or less seriously injured, as the result of the fight.

After it was thought that the situation was well in hand the fire gained control again. Infantrymen stopped trying to force prisoners into the cells to aid the firemen and loyal convicts to fight the flames. At this the convicts turned and rushed upon the soldiers again and the general fight was renewed. It is feared serious damage will be done by the fire if the infantrymen are not able to cope with the prisoners while the firemen fight the flames. It is believed scores of prisoners have escaped during the excitement.

One German Torpedo Boat Sunk. Offensive In Belgium Begun

(International News Service.)
London, June 5.—A combined land and sea engagement was fought off the coast of West Flanders today.

British warships bombarded the German base at Ostend, the admiralty announced, and at the same time British cruisers and destroyers engaged a German fleet at long range, sinking a torpedo boat; another was badly damaged.

The British ships approached Ostend during the morning and the fort was heavily bombarded for some time. The German shore batteries replied with vigor. It was observed that the shells from British ships did considerable damage. The British ships attacking the German flotilla were light cruisers and torpedo boats. The British sustained no casualties.

BELGIUM BECOMES STORM CENTER OF THE FIGHTING

(International News Service.)
London, June 5.—Belgium has become the storm center of fighting on the western front.

Attacks by land, sea and air have been delivered against the Germans in that zone of battle. In the Ypres sector the British delivered powerful raiding thrusts during the night, capturing some prisoners.

British airmen have made another successful drive against the German naval base at Zeebrugge, and have also bombarded with good results the German air base at St. Denis.

On the western front to the south of the Aisne the French in a furious assault won back ground lost to the Germans near Froidmont.

GERMANY IS NOT WEAKENING

GREAT BRITAIN NEWSPAPERS ARE ASKED TO WARN ALLIED NATIONS TO PREPARE FOR THE WORST.

(International News Service.)
London, June 5.—A sharp contrast in conditions in Russia and Germany was revealed in two articles printed in the Times today. Prof. Fred Sefton Delmar, who has just arrived from Berlin, writes that it would be utterly misleading to believe that Germany is near collapse. Prof. Masaryk telegraphed to the Times from Petrograd that Russia will give the allies little, if any, further help and declares that the allies should prepare for the worst.

RIOTING IN KIEV AND SITUATION LOOKS BLACKER

Copenhagen, June 5.—With anarchy in Petrograd and fatal riots in Kiev the acute situation took on new complications today when certain labor leaders proclaimed a general strike, says a Petrograd dispatch. Sailors marched through the streets of Petrograd cheering for Nicholas Kiev, the pro-German pacifist. Supporters of the provisional government entertained strong hopes that the appointment of Gen. Brusiloff to succeed Gen. Alexiff as commander-in-chief, will strengthen the morale of the soldiers.

NATION'S YOUNG MEN REGISTERING QUIETLY AND BY THE MILLIONS

Practically No Disturbance Reported Over the Country as Government Enrolls Men For Military Service

REGISTRARS EVERYWHERE ARE RUSHED

Celebrations and Other Ceremonies Attend Taking of Names in Many American Cities

(BY JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.)
(International News Service.)

Washington, June 5.—The flower of America's young manhood enrolled for the nation's defense today. In every hamlet where the Stars and stripes floated proudly to the breeze long lines of stalwart young men between the ages of 21 and 31 registered their names as prospective soldiers to carry the flag to foreign soil and to place it in the forefront in the struggle for human liberty.

The early reports reaching the offices of the attorney general and the provost marshal general indicated that the registration during the first few hours was very large. Little serious disorder was expected. The usual fights which marked national elections were anticipated, but the elaborate precautions taken made any wide-spread anti-registration rioting impossible. Entire forces of the department of justice throughout the country had been ordered on duty at 7 o'clock this morning.

Down in the old pension building where Provost Marshal Crowder established his headquarters there was absolutely no excitement. The marshal was at his desk very early. The state peace officers, municipal police and county officers were aiding the federal agents in bringing about a complete registration.

Washington was tense all day while the enrollment of the names of more than 10,000,000 of the flower of the nation's youth went forward.

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 5.—The first arrest of the day was reported to the department of justice from Providence, R. I., where agents of the department seized an agitator who attempted to dissuade young men from registering.

250,000 REGISTER IN CHICAGO WITHOUT TROUBLE.

(International News Service.)
Chicago, June 5.—The second city's young men, 250,000 of them, stood up and were counted today. As the registration books opened at 7 a. m. tug boats, marine sirens, church bells rang and bands played.

At many booths girls with arms full of flowers stationed themselves at the exit doors and decorated every man as he left.

The general spirit of the men who registered was one of cheerful compliance with the law. Registration officials noted with pride that the majority of the prospective trench fighters either did not answer question No. 12 or waived claim to exemption. It mattered not whether they had wives, mothers, children or all three dependant upon them. The general answer was something like this: "Uncle Sam needs me worse than they do."

NEW YORK'S 600,000 MEN ENROLL WITHOUT EXCITEMENT.

(International News Service.)
New York, June 5.—Without a semblance of confusion the work of enrolling the national honor roll of New York City's 600,000 young men, between 21 and 31 years got under way today. Eight thousand registration officers were on the job early this morning and the registration is proceeding at the average rate of 45,000 per hour. Although no serious trouble was expected to follow the anti-conscription rioting in the Bronx last night, no precaution was lacking to meet every emergency. Ten thousand national guardsmen were mobilized at their armories ready for instant call.

No move will be made against those refusing to register until after 9 o'clock tonight. Then without delay the round-up of slackers will begin.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE SPEEDING LAWS.

Announcement by both Albany and Decatur authorities that the anti-speeding laws are to be observed, falls with a joyful thud upon the ears of such pedestrians as value life and limb. Too long have these laws been broken with a reckless defiance that is not tempered even by daylight hours or the congested sections of the business district. While about thirty miles per hour is the limit downtown in the day time, this is almost a minimum rate of travel at night on the residence streets. To corroborate this statement, all that is necessary is to take a station on East Grant street any summer evening and keep eyes and ears open. Races, rivaling in their fierce intensity those of the Roman charioteers, are often staged on prominent thoroughfares. Not only do the motorists disregard the safety and welfare of others, but also themselves, as they yield to the mania for speed that seems to intoxicate every devotee of the wheel. This should be stopped. The public still has rights.

REGISTERING, A SACRED DUTY OF CITIZENSHIP.

Whatever merit lies in the conscription law is in the selective-jury wheel system to be put into effect by the national government. It is this that takes the man who would volunteer, the man who would be a slacker and the man who should remain at home to care for dependants and weeds out the men who should go and who should stay.

The Alabamians who went to the registration places today to enroll themselves for military service came with a high purpose. Few of them knew of the heavy penalties to be incurred by failure to register and fewer of them cared about the penalties. They were young men who came with the purpose and desire to serve their country. All but a few score would have registered had there been no penalty. They recognized the call for men as the clarion call of a sacred duty to be performed as Americans have always performed their national obligations.

The citizens have performed their duty with the close of the registration tonight and now the federal government may be expected to do its duty. It may be expected that only the men who rightfully should go to the front will be sent and that justice may be done to all.

MARKETING FARM PRODUCTS.

Quite as serious as the increasing of the food supply of the country to meet war conditions is the question of increasing the marketing and transportation facilities. A good step in this direction is for city residents to arrange to buy their meats direct from the farm, thus eliminating the middlemen and helping immensely in the proper distribution of farm products. If every resident of the Twin Cities, for instance, were to arrange for his meat from some adjoining farm to be delivered within a few weeks after cold weather sets in next fall the meat supply problem of the Twin Cities would be greatly simplified. Hams, shoulders, bacon and other such products could be brought from the farm at much cheaper prices in this manner.

Many a man who clamors for "liberty or death" finds himself able to get along without even a Liberty Bond.

ABOUT THE SLACKERS.

"I am sorry we do not live in the days of the sixties when all men were brave and the country was not filled with miserable cowards," said a woman the other day. "I would gladly send every kinsman I have to this war and I haven't the slightest respect for those who hold back."

"I have heard so many people who have no sons or brothers say that," spoke up a little woman who hadn't taken much part in the war conversation. The little woman told of her brothers already at the front and of her son who will go to future wars. "It isn't so bad," she said, "for those of us who have no kinsmen really going to war."

No human woman, we suppose, ever sent her sons and kinsmen to war with a glad heart. It is but natural that she should shed a tear when her offspring goes forth to the wars. It is this feeling that those who have no children cannot understand when the flags are waving and the bands are playing patriotic hymns.

This question of slackers, however, has been exaggerated just as the German spy bugaboo has been magnified. Officials at Washington estimated that there will be only 10,000 men who fail to register out of 10,000,000. There were ten times this number who resisted the draft on both sides in the civil war. We of the south who pride ourselves on the titanic struggle put up by the men of the South in the sixties must not forget that their ranks were honeycombed with traitors and renegades, as were the ranks of the north.

There will not be many slackers. Considering the large foreign element in the United States and the fifty years of peace through which the country has passed there will be very few.

The Kaiser is our problem; not the slackers.

FOUR REASON FOR BONDS.

Security in every sense of the word is represented by Liberty Loan bonds. No investment on earth is secure if a United States government bond is not. Profit is represented also in the purchase of Liberty Loan bonds. They not only pay three and one-half percent interest, but are exempt from every kind of taxation. In years to come these bonds will command a premium, and if ever the government issues bonds paying more interest the Liberty Bonds may be freely exchanged for them.

Thrill is encouraged by buying Liberty Loan bonds. (If you haven't fifty dollars with which to buy a bond today you may pay a dollar down, $9 a month, hence, $10 in two months and $15 each in two payments in the month of August. Who can not buy at least one bond on these summer-long terms?

Patriotism is manifested by every person who buys a Liberty Loan bond. He helps his country, and the cause for which his country fights. He helps the cause of liberty while benefiting himself and proving the worth and truth of democracy.—Atlanta Georgian.

The four hundred million subjects of the Chinese republic or empire, whichever it is, fret and fume and revolt and insurrect without producing so much as a ripple upon the surface of the great world pond. These embattled Chinks, victims of the false philosophy of a pacifism that requires the constant turning of the other cheek for a harder blow, have no genius for any higher calling than that of the washerwoman, and play no larger part in the game of life that do the old women who pound a washboard for a livelihood. The nation stands before the world humiliated and condemned, merely because it has failed to display any manly qualities.

Destruction of 49 vessels flying the Norwegian flag by German submarines is in itself justification for the United States having entered the world war. Any nation that asserts the right to destroy the property of any neutral, has already sinned against all neutrals. Neutral rights are common, and if Norway continues to submit to such indignities through fear, the world will soon arrive at the conclusion that the heroic courage of the Norsemen of old has passed out with their indomitable spirits.

DRIVING IS HARD WORK.

"Driving an automobile is not the alluring pleasure that I thought it was before I bought a Ford," said J. P. Whitman. "I made a little tour over to Ozard Sunday, and when I returned here I felt as tired as if I had done a day's work. The next time I make a trip of some length I expect to take a man along who can take turns in driving, so that there will be some real joy to motoring."

THE SOLDIERS' BALL.

"The Albany Home Guards will give a 'Soldiers' Ball' in the near future," said Sergt. A. H. Hanson of that organization. "The ball will be for the purpose of swelling the uniform fund, with which it is intended to purchase uniforms for the men who compose the membership of the guard. W. W. Rahm and other local musicians have expressed a willingness to furnish the music without charge, a courtesy and favor that we very much appreciate. I am sure that the public will be generous in its attendance, as in addition to aiding a worthy movement, it will be able to get a big run for its money in the way of entertainment."

WAITING ON MUSCLE SHOALS.

"You residents of the Twin Cities would be surprised if you knew the amount of money recently invested in North Alabama real estate on the strength of the optimistic reports from Washington regarding Muscle Shoals," said a prominent citizen of Atlanta. "I intend to run over to Albany and Decatur and have a look at some city property myself as soon as it is formally announced that Muscle Shoals has won. Atlanta people are very much interested in the development of the Shoals."

The Leonard Cleanable ONE-PIECE PORCELAIN LINED REFRIGERATOR

Can be cleaned in five minutes

You Can't Have Clean Food Unless You Have a Clean Refrigerator—

YOU wouldn't of course, eat anything but clean food. Yet food cannot be clean that has been in an unsanitary refrigerator. A bad odor in your refrigerator is always a danger signal.

Zinc or galvanized iron linings for refrigerators are unsanitary. Even though coated with white paint or enamel, they soon get stained and discolored. Worse still, cracks and scratches develop which fill with grease and food particles. Thus germs are fostered causing a most unsanitary condition.

A Leonard Cleanable is made with a one-piece porcelain lining, smooth, pure white, everlasting, just like a piece of china, except that it is unbreakable. This porcelain you cannot possibly scratch, not even with a steel knife blade. It has no cracks or crevices in which grease or germs may collect. It is as clean as a china dish and as easily kept clean. Notice how the Porcelain Lining of the door is made in one piece. Look for the trade-mark shown below.

Get your family's safe, learn about the Leonard Cleanable. We want to tell you its many good qualities. Call and get an interesting booklet, "The Care of Refrigerators." It contains many good points you ought to know.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. I kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

Nation's Young Men Registering Quietly

lines were waiting to give in their names.

MONTGOMERY REGISTERS THREE THOUSAND MEN.

(International News Service.) Montgomery, June 5.—Two thousand men had registered for conscription at noon in Montgomery today. One-half of these are negroes. The total registration is expected to reach over 3,000. A public demonstration was held this afternoon in honor of the young men who registered during the day.

ENLISTMENT RECORDS ARE SMASHED DAY BEFORE.

(International News Service.) Washington, June 5.—Day before registration saw all records for army recruiting smashed. Returns show that 4,201 joined this arm of the service yesterday. The total enlistment since April reached 101,493.

BIRMINGHAM PARADES AS YOUNG MEN REGISTER.

(International News Service.) Birmingham, June 5.—At noon today everything was in readiness for Birmingham's greatest parade which will move off promptly at 2 o'clock headed by Grand Marshal T. O. Smith. At the head of the parade will be Major General Leonard Wood, chief of the department of the southeast. At the great flag raising ceremony at Capitol park which follows the parade, General Wood will be the speaker.

Registration here today has exceeded all expectations. Early in the day registration certificates were exhausted and a hurry call was made to Montgomery for more. Conspicuous by their numbers are the negroes who are registering. In front of every registration booth in the city long lines have been formed since early morning and indications are that more than 18,000 men will be registered in Greater Birmingham.

ADVICE FOR BESPECTACLED

Sudden Change in Temperature Likely to Be Disastrous to Shell Frames, Says Optician.

An optician, writing in the New York Sun, gives some information that may benefit the wearers of shell-rimmed spectacles.

It is of the utmost importance, he says, to be very careful not to subject the shell frames to a sudden atmospheric change. You must not go from a room in which the temperature is about 70 degrees into the open where the temperature is as low as ten degrees. If you make that sudden change, the shell frames will crack in some place. A low temperature makes the shell frames contract, and since the lenses will not "give," the frames must.

A high temperature, especially on humid days, causes the shell to expand. That loosens the frames and allows the lenses to get out of position. Sometimes the heat of the body has the same effect.

To prevent scratching the lenses, never lay your glasses down so that they rest on the glass. Instead, turn them so that the frames have the weight. It is equally important to clean the lenses in the right way. Always use a cloth made for the purpose, and be sure that your method is correct. Take the glasses in your left hand and the cloth in the right and rub the lenses gently. Be careful never to twist the glasses. Hold them firmly and do the twisting with the hand that holds the cloth. Then you will not work the lenses loose in the frames.

As Dorothy Understood It.

While Dorothy's mother was reading to the little girl she came to the word "gravitation." She explained its meaning briefly, but thought the child would forget it. Consequently, she was much surprised when, a few days later, Dorothy came running in, exclaiming excitedly:

"Oh, mamma, it's a good thing for me there's a law of gravitation, or I'd have stumbled head over heels into heaven just now, when I fell off the adder."

Militancy.

He—Is your friend a pacifist?
She—I should say not! Why, rather than consent to a dishonorable peace she refuses to divorce her husband.—Judge.

Ten Thousand Attend Buffalo Bill Funeral

Denver, June 5.—Last tribute was paid Monday to the late Col. William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill") when the famous scout and plainsman was placed in a vault made from a solid rock on top of Lookout mountain, 20 miles from Denver.

More than 10,000 people went from Denver to Lookout mountain. Several thousand who had gone by trolley to Golden, at the foot of the mountain, climbed the steep foot trails along the automobile road to Wildcat point, where the burial was held.

The ceremony at the grave was simple. The Masonic ritual was under the direction of the Golden Masonic lodge.

At the conclusion of the services a bugler sounded taps. When the last note had died out, a battery of Colorado National Guard artillery fired a salute of 13 guns and the Stars and Stripes were hoisted from a flag pole at the grave.

Had Terrible Pains in Kidneys and Back.

Dear Mr. Editor—I want to write you about "Anuric." I was very sick, could hardly be up; I was in bed most of the time. Had terrible pains in my kidneys and back, so much so that I had to scream sometimes when I was sitting down and wanted to get up, the pain was so great. I had tried a well-known kidney medicine but it didn't help me. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets so I thought I would try them. I took only one box of the Tablets, and my back is now free from pain and I can work and take care of my family. I feel I cannot say enough for this medicine. Sincerely, Mrs. Wm. KELLER.

NOTE: This "Anuric" is adapted especially for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine and urinary troubles. The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's great Institution, at Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested this prescription and have been with one accord successful in eradicating these troubles, and in most cases absolutely curing the diseased kidneys. Patients having once used "Anuric" at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, have repeatedly sent back for more. Such a demand has been created that Dr. Pierce has decided to put "Anuric" in the drug stores of this country, in a ready-to-use form. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood cleanser and alternative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to make rich, red blood, which feeds the heart, nerves, brain and organs of the body. You feel clean, strong and strenuous.

No motor quality so good but comfort makes it better. Equally—no motor quality so good but lack of comfort discounts it half.

Attention Property Owners

FOR RENT SIGNS are seldom seen hanging on a house that is equipped with a modern steam or hot water heating system. There must be a reason. Start out today to find a vacant office or a vacant residence that is steam or water heated and you will find every room taken. The owners of such buildings are reaping a steady income, and the tenants are contented. Why not try this little extra investment on your vacant house and keep it rented forever afterward? The after expense is practically nothing as the equipment will last as long as the building. Eventually they will all be heated. Why not start yours now? For full information and estimate, call

The City Calls and Calls Again

The City calls and calls again,
And ever the call is for "More Men;"
An island washed by a river of gold,
As its thousand products are bought and sold,
And a prince would envy the fortune paid
Each week to the workers for their aid;
And day and night the chimneys high
Pour out more smoke to the clear blue sky.

On every side we hear this call for men; cities, towns and villages join in unison in the appeal—give us men—give us workers, not loafers; artisans, not the unskilled; citizens who will build, not destroy; echoing throughout our land this call for men has shifted the population from the rural districts to the cities.

Cities have held out glowing invitations of how much money could be earned, the pleasures to be enjoyed, and various other appeals, but in few instances have we ever read or heard of communities advertising their comfortable homes. We have gone just so far and stopped and quit where we should have started for modern comfortable homes for our wage earners are a necessity.

It has always seemed strange to the writer when visiting a city during a convention that in the usual auto ride over the city he was always shown the homes of the rich, when in reality he would have gained a better opinion of the city if shown modern attractive homes of their mill districts, for it is the mill districts which support a city, not the millionaires. Why should not our cities be just as proud of their mill districts as their homes of the rich? Why should corporations and landlords build for their wage earner the "look-alike" type of homes, when attractive and modern homes can be constructed for the same money.

Let us stamp the home of the wage earner with the air of individuality which the worker possesses. This may be easily accomplished by using plans prepared by competent artists, men who have given study to the planning of modern up-to-date small homes.

When we call for men let us hope that we may hold out as an inducement modern, comfortable homes.
